

In memory of Jacoba Lugt-Klever (1888-1969), wife of the collector Frits Lugt and co-founder of the Fondation Custodia, the latter offers a two-year fellowship from 1 November 2023 for art historical research in collaboration with the RKD – the Netherlands Institute for Art History. The research is to be related to the main collecting areas of the Fondation Custodia / Frits Lugt Collection, namely that of European drawings and prints (“art on paper”), illustrated books from the sixteenth till late nineteenth centuries, plein air oil paintings and autographs.

The Fondation Custodia and the RKD have a vacant position from 1 November 2023 for an enthusiastic

Jacoba Lugt-Klever Fellow
36 jours per week

The fellowship is available for an experienced art historian, with a demonstrable specialization in ‘art on paper’. The fellowship will either enable you to support your own ongoing research, or to start a new project affiliated to one of the research areas of the Fondation Custodia and/or the RKD. Location is The Hague. The Jacoba Lugt-Klever Fellow is required to submit a publishable scholarly text after completion of the fellowship.

Profile

You have carried out recent intensive research into works of art on paper. You appreciate the value of the Jacoba Lugt-Klever Fellow for the field of knowledge in general and for the Fondation Custodia and the RKD in particular.

- Knowledge and education at academic level;
- Knowledge and experience in carrying out art historical research into works on paper;
- Knowledge and experience with (museum) collections;
- Good communication skills and a pleasant writing style;
- Shows enthusiasm for working for the Fondation Custodia and the RKD.

We offer

A challenging research position in an inspiring environment. The salary indication is scale 9/10 (Dutch Museum collective labour agreement), depending on knowledge and experience. A contribution towards material and travel costs incurred for research is also offered. The position is a temporary one, with a maximum duration of two years.

The RKD is convinced that a diversity of backgrounds and views greatly benefits the institution. That is why we are building a workforce that reflects our society, consisting of staff with different backgrounds and skills that reinforce each other. The Fondation Custodia subscribes to the same view. Vacancies are explicitly open to all who recognize themselves in the profile.

Applications can be submitted up to and including 15 August 2023 with an accompanying motivational letter, a research proposal (max. 1500 words) and CV, to pz@rkd.nl stating Vacature Jacoba Lugt-Klever Fellow. Further information on the position is available from either Prof.dr. Yvonne Bleyerveld, Senior Curator of Drawings and Prints, bleyerveld@rkd.nl, or Drs. Carel van Tuyl, member of the Board of Fondation Custodia, carelvantuyll@gmail.com.

Interviews will be held in the week of 11 September 2023. Acquisition based on this vacancy announcement is not appreciated.

